FREE LEGAL HELP FOR SURVIVORS OF TRAFFICKING

The Survivors of Human Trafficking Legal Program provides comprehensive, free civil legal services to survivors of human trafficking living in Broward County.

The Survivors of Human Trafficking Program is a trauma-informed, holistic legal program. Under this approach, survivors will not have to relive and recount their experiences multiple times with multiple attorneys in order to seek relief for various legal problems - survivors will work with one attorney and one paralegal for their multiple legal issues.

LEGAL SERVICES OFFERED TO SURVIVORS OF TRAFFICKING:

- Expungements
- Civil Injunctions for Protection (restraining orders/protection orders)
- Divorces
- Name Changes
- Paternity and Parental Responsibility
- Assistance Obtaining Identifying Documents
- Enforcement of Victims' Rights in Criminal Cases Against Trafficker/Abuser
- Housing Issues
- Public Benefits
- Immigration
- HT Diversion Advice

Our services are FREE

There are no financial eligibility restrictions or requirements for survivors of human trafficking (sex and/or labor trafficking).
