

Hello,

To pursue this legal matter on your own, we suggest the following:

There are several helpful resources online, including:

<https://florida.freelegalanswers.org/> and <https://help.flcourts.org/download-the-app/>

Pro Se Unit at the Broward County Courthouse

201 S.E. 6th Street, Fort Lauderdale - Room WW 02140

954-831-5570 / 954-831-5579

The Florida Supreme Court has developed a website for people to file their own family law actions. Self-help packets for divorce, paternity and other family law matters are sold. You can access those forms free of charge by going online to <https://www.flcourts.gov/>. Look for the brown button in the middle of the page - Self Help Information - Family Law Forms.

Efiling Portal Overview

<https://www.browardclerk.org/GeneralInformation/eFILING#General> provides an email you may contact with questions. To register as a new eFiling user go to www.myflcourtaccess.com For Clerk of Court eFiling assistance, direct your inquiry to: eFiling@browardclerk.org
[The case type and 'reference number' must be included in the subject line.]

The Clerk of Court staff is not able to provide assistance with ePortal related issues and inquiries. For ePortal technical support, contact the Florida Courts eFiling Portal via email support@myflcourtaccess.com, or call the Florida Courts eFiling Portal Support Desk at 850-577-4609.

Judges Practices & Procedures

You may want to check your judge's procedures before filing documents with the court.

Go to <https://www.17th.flcourts.org/>

Under Judges & Magistrates tab, click on Judges Practices & Procedures to do a search for your judge and review their procedures.

The Family Law & Victims of Crime Unit
Coast to Coast Legal Aid of South Florida