Ways to Be a Pro Bono Attorney

Volunteer to represent one of our clients pro bono through individual case acceptance.

Volunteer for our weekly Hotline to provide advice and counsel to clients over the phone.

Provide legal information or legal advice at one of our in-person or online Know Your Rights clinics.

Conduct CLE trainings for Legal Aid program staff to expand knowledge and legal expertise.

BLC is the officially recognized pro bono program in Broward County. It manages the administrative issues so that the attorney's time is spent directly on the clients' legal needs.
